For Parents & Caregivers

How to get the most out of this activity book

Age range: 3 to 6 years
From preschool through 1st grade.

Materials

- Thick pencil or crayons for tracing and coloring.
- Dot marker (or round stickers, a cotton swab dipped in paint, or a painted fingertip).
- Child-safe scissors and glue for the cut-and-paste pages — always with an adult nearby.
- Everyday objects (bottle caps, blocks, fruit) for real-life counting.

How to use

1. Do 1 or 2 pages a day, in 10–15 minute sessions.
2. Follow the book's order: it goes from easiest to most challenging.
3. Read the instructions aloud and do the first item together.
4. When tracing, point to the numbered arrows: where to start and which way to go.
5. Stop while it's still fun — tiredness turns into frustration.

What your child develops

- Number recognition: identifying, coloring and circling numerals 1–10.
- Writing: forming numerals and number words with guided tracing.
- Fine motor skills: dotting, tracing, cutting and gluing.
- Counting: matching each object to one number (one-to-one correspondence).
- Sequencing: ordering 1 to 10 and finding what comes before and after.
- Focus and independence: following multi-step instructions to the end.

Golden tips

- Praise effort, not perfection: “You counted so carefully!” matters more than a straight line.
- Bring numbers into daily life: count stairs, buttons, fruit at the store, cars on the street.
- Made a mistake? That's fine. Ask “shall we count again together?” instead of erasing it.
- Print favorite pages more than once — repetition is a great way to learn.

Activity Guide

What's in each part of the book and how to help

1. Dot the numbers pp. 4–13
   Giant numbers 1–10 to fill in with a dot marker, stickers or a painted fingertip. Say the number's name and count each dot out loud.

2. Meet the number pp. 14–22
   Trace the dotted numbers, color the circles with the right number and draw that many balls. Start with the example and check the drawing by counting together.

3. Activities 1 to 9 pp. 23–31
   Trace, count fruit, circle the number and color exactly the right number of stars. Ask: “how many more stars do you need to color?”

4. Trace, maze and count pp. 32–41
   A maze from number to number, boxes to color and the number word. The hand shows the number with fingers. Make the finger number together!

5. Number words pp. 42–43
   Match each numeral to its name, 1 to 12. For older kids (ages 5–6). Read the words in the box and let your child find them.

6. Trace the words pp. 44–53
   Colorful pages to follow the number's arrows and trace the dotted word. Laminate or slip into a sheet protector to reuse.

7. Put the numbers in order pp. 54–63
   Cut out and glue the numbers 1 to 10 in the right order. Spread the pieces on the table before gluing and count: 1, 2, 3...

8. What comes next? pp. 64–68
   Write the next number; the last two pages go up to 20. Use fingers or a row of objects to “add one more”.

9. Before and after pp. 69–71
   Find the neighbor on each side of the number. If unsure, count out loud together starting from 1.

10. Answer key & certificate pp. 72–73
    Answers for the adult to check, plus a certificate to celebrate. Hand over the certificate with a little party — they earned it!
